

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Saloon Burglarized.—Some time after the place was closed Saturday night burglars entered the saloon of John Eckmann, front and main streets, through a window facing Front street, rifled the cash register, secured $19 in cash and escaped. The robbery was not discovered until Sunday morning when the window of the saloon was found wide open. The police were notified and city detectives were assigned to the case. There is no clue to the identity of the robbers.

Fires Yesterday.—The barn of J. W. Wittenberg, eighth and Harrison streets, was destroyed by fire shortly after noon yesterday. When the department arrived within a few minutes after the alarm had been received, the building was in flames and the firemen had difficulty in keeping the fire from spreading to nearby out-buildings. The barn was well filled with hay. The origin of the fire is not known.

Man Arrested; Horse Shot.—A little Italian boy seated on the curbstone crying that he was lost, and a few feet away a one-horse wagon filled with rotten fruit and evil smelling meat attracted the attention of Officer James Carroll Saturday night at Fourteenth and Harrison streets. The lad, who was too broken hearted and frightened to tell his name, between sobs informed the officer that the man with whom he had been riding had disappeared. The officer immediately took charge of the rig and was bringing the boy to the station when Cesare Bovitch, an Italian vendor from Moline, appeared on the scene. The contents of the wagon and the condition of the horse was such that Officer Carroll ordered Bovitch to accompany him to the station. The man was charged with cruelty to animals. The horse was shot by the police and the cost of the animal's keep was assessed against the Italian.

Automobile Arrested.—Charged with driving his automobile over a line of fire hose which the firemen were playing on a fire near Eighth and Harrison streets yesterday, H. G. Struck was arrested by City Detective Charles Boettcher and released on $10 bonds to appear in police court for a hearing.

Farmers Meet.—Several Davenporters are expected to attend the Brookfield Township Better Farming association club show and picnic Friday of this week at Elwood, Clinton county. G. R. Bliss of Davenport, M. L. Mosher of Clinton, C. F. Coverdale, Elwood, president of the association, M. G. Thornberg, Ames and C. F. Terhune, Clinton, will be the speakers.

Patrol Car Received.—The new Pope-Hartford $5,500 patrol car, purchased by the city several months ago, arrived in Davenport yesterday morning and was delivered to the police department. The new machine is larger than the one now in use and is up-to-date in every particular and thoroughly equipped for the purposes for which it is to be used.

Marriage Licenses.—The following marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Harry J. McFarland yesterday:

Edward C. Lange and Louise Kidling, Davenport.
Herman Sanders, Davenport and Margaret Schwartz, Geneseo.
Howard Graham and Laura Sander-ton, Davenport.
James T. Hughes and Nine McWhirter, Fairfield, Iowa.
Maynard C. Norton of Davenport and Gladys Seasongood of St. Joseph, Mich., have been licensed to marry in the latter city.

Obituary Record.—When Mrs. A. J. Koehler, 1722 Sturdevant street, went to the room of her father, Michael Mattingly, to call him for supper Sunday afternoon, she discovered the aged man lying dead in his bed. Heart failure is attributed to have been the cause of death. Mr. Mattingly, who was over 67 years old, arose early. He complained of feeling ill and returned to his bed. He did not get up at noon, and his daughter supposed him sleeping. She called him about 6:30 o'clock in the evening and he did not answer. She entered his room and found his body lying on the bed. He had been dead several hours, as the body was entirely cold. Coroner Rudolf was called on the case, and he pronounced death as due to heart failure. Mattingly had lived in this city only a short time, and at the home on Sturdevant street only about a week. He was a retired farmer. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Guy Holsapple of McCausland, Iowa; Mrs. Annie Thomas of Mystic, Iowa; Mrs. George White of Davenport, and Mrs. A. J. Koehler of Davenport. One son, George Mattingly of Grand Rapids, Mich., also survives.

Mrs. Emma Louisa Barr, 53 years old, died at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the family home on the Jersey Ridge road, Davenport R. R. No. 4, after a lingering illness. Decedent was born Jan. 1, 1860, in Bridgeport, Conn., and came to Davenport when 5 years of age. Here she was educated both in the public schools and at the immaculate Conception academy. She was a member of the Edwards Congregational church, and also belonged to the Jersey Ridge Missionary society and the Edwards circle. On Oct. 23, 1889, she was united in marriage with William A. Barr, the couple removing immediately to the farm on Jersey Ridge road, where they had since made their home. Besides the husband, there survive to mourn her death a daughter, Etta, and one son, George, at home, and a brother, Fred Wiley of Chicago. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow from the family home, with interment in Oakdale cemetery.

Mrs. Frank Taylor, formerly of Davenport, died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of her son, William Taylor of Minneapolis, Minn., while there on a visit. She was born in Davenport in May, 1859, and resided here all of her life with the exception of visiting with her son in Minneapolis, where death occurred. She was the daughter of Winchester Lorton, and was educated here. Her husband died two years ago. Surviving are three sons, Leroy and Chester of Chicago and William of Minneapolis, and one daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hartwell of Davenport, besides four sisters, Mrs. Tony Biehl of Oklahoma, and Mrs. D. C. Leonard, Mrs. Henry Yager and Miss Cad Lorton of Davenport.

Mrs. Caroline Cotter, a resident of Mercy hospital for several years, died there at 6 o'clock Sunday after a brief illness at the age of 87 years. Mrs. Cotter came to the hospital many years ago and since that time had made her home with the sisters there. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Ryan of Muscatine. Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Anthony's church, Rev. D. J. Flannery officiating at a requiem mass. The body was sent to Columbus Junction and interment made in Columbus City cemetery.

Lady Cops Wear Blue Tailormades and Silver Stars

Chicago's policewomen.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Hereafter when the friendless country girl comes to Chicago and starts out looking for work she need not fear the dangers of a big city. For somewhere along her route she will run into two women clad in modest blue tailormades and wearing small silver stars and hats with blue bands. These are Chicago's new policewomen, appointed by the mayor, who have just gone on duty.

The new members of the police force have been assigned to different stations and will travel in pairs. Like the present "plain clothes men." Only in emergencies are they to do regular police duty. Their work is mainly to look out for women and girls and for children.

The new members are not wearing tight skirts. Neat and simple suits of the regulation blue, tailored to the wearer's desire will be the nearest approach to a uniform for a while.

"They will visit the public dance halls," said Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton of the Juvenile Protective association, "the small and the large parks, the excursion boats, the beaches, and the depots, and try to keep boys and girls off the streets late at night. Their work will be broader than that of policemen, their special field being to work for the good of Chicago's young people."

"They will obtain information rather than make arrests," said Chief of Police McWeeny, "although on occasion they may be called to arrest someone. Investigation will be more in their line. The question of brass buttons, clubs and revolvers will be taken up later. Show me the woman, though, who doesn't know how to wield a baton."

Myer and was accompanied by a bulldog.

CAMBRIDGE

Thursday afternoon, Aug. 14, the Ladies' Aid society will hold its meeting in the church basement. Mesdames Anton B. Anderson, Justice A. Rehn and John A. Anderson will serve refreshments. Everybody is invited. The meeting begins at 3 o'clock.
